We also provide optional services on request: Meet & Greet

We have specialised Meet and Greet staff, administered by a Movements Coordinator. In the absence of client protocol personnel, we (will at client request) provide personnel to meet client newly arrived or returning expatriate personnel at the airport of arrival. A dedicated shuttle is used in Lagos for Airport pickups and transportation to either the Domestic Airport, or accommodation.

For initial arrival in locations outside Lagos, a meet and greet service is used, and personnel are transferred directly to their accommodation and/or work site.

- Identification of the client at the arrival terminal
- Assistance to the client while undergoing airport formalities such as Customs and immigration procedures;
- Baggage handling

For this Service, our fee is per individual. Discounts are negotiable for multiple individuals crew/party arriving or departing via the same flight.

Pick-up & Drop-off

Chonik does not have a brand preference, the onus being on the client to provide transportation for its personnel. However, Chonik will render support in extreme or emergency situations and submit an Invoice accordingly.

Chauffeured, Climate-controlled and comfortable vehicles of various brands are available on daily hire basis for clients in Lagos. Where the client is not in Lagos, we can assist in sourcing competent companies for this purpose. All vehicles are comprehensively insured by reputable Underwriters.

Hoteling and Conferencing

We may assist with booking any type of accommodation that the client requires prior to client's arrival. Be it a hotel, guest house, short let apartment, we cater to our client's requirements. We have existing arrangements for short let offices for meetings and virtual office arrangements.

Maritime Crew Change Operations and Offshore Transportation

For up to 120 personnel at any time including helicopter and airplane Charter flights within and outside Nigeria.

Commercial Flights

In accordance with our policies and procedures, air travel is usually arranged by the client for personnel being mobilized or demobilized. However, in emergency situations, we will assist with
